

Role TitleASSOCIATE, Active Portfolio Management*Role Summary

Whitehorse Liquidity Partners (“Whitehorse”), based in Toronto, is a fast-growing private equity firm focused on accelerating liquidity on private equity portfolios through structured solutions. Whitehorse seeks to provide customized and flexible liquidity solutions for private equity investors through the use of structured solutions with existing investors or outright purchases of portfolios which are subsequently structured into different securities. Whitehorse currently has over US$12.0B under management. Whitehorse is seeking diverse, energetic, and dynamic individuals who thrive in a fast-paced, high-performance, entrepreneurial environment.

The Associate plays an essential role in all activities of the Active Portfolio Management (“APM”) team. The APM team draws on diverse skill sets required to support a wide range of portfolio management activities, such as the evaluation and execution of all divestitures and financing transactions, including portfolio recapitalizations, subscription lines, and rated products, and the development of complex financial models to support top-down portfolio construction and day-to-day fund management decision making. The Associate will also, from time to time, support other strategic firm-wide initiatives.

The Associate has prior experience in private equity/secondaries, capital markets, investment banking, leveraged finance, transaction advisory or related fields and has a strong financial modelling skill set.

Role-Specific Accountabilities

- Support senior investment professionals in the recommendation and execution of financing and divestiture transactions, including transaction analysis and in-depth modeling, structuring, the creation of investment committee memorandums and negotiation of key terms and conditions
- Build dynamic financial models to analyze divestiture opportunities, financing structures and fund management tools, incorporating statistical analysis to test assumptions and run scenario analyses and sensitivities
- Participate in regular meetings with external parties critical to divestiture and financing transactions, including financing partners, secondary market agents and financial sponsors
- Work with large datasets of underlying portfolio data to monitor exposure and derive actionable insights to achieve key portfolio construction objectives
- Conduct timely analysis and updates on the construction of Whitehorse fund portfolios and transaction structures, ensuring alignment of deal sourcing to portfolio objectives
- Collaborate with our Technology & Data team to automate existing reports and develop new analytics and reporting that leverage Whitehorse’s cloud database and analytical tools (Excel, Python, SQL, Tableau, etc.)
- Contribute innovative ideas towards future Whitehorse strategic initiatives and transactions
- Help to oversee and train junior professionals on the Active Portfolio Management team
- Actively participate in investment decision discussions, team meetings and other firm-wide initiatives

Education, Experience & Capabilities

- 3 – 5 years of experience in private equity/secondaries, capital markets, investment banking, leveraged finance, transaction advisory or related fields

- Undergraduate degree, in commerce, business administration, mathematical finance, engineering or adjacent field of study
 - Post-graduate degree, Masters of Finance or Masters of Mathematical Finance, CFA or CPA considered an asset
- High degree of professionalism and integrity
- High level of proficiency in Excel and complex financial modeling skills in addition to PowerPoint
 - Experience with Python or other relevant languages considered an asset
- Experience working on teams that manage multiple stakeholders, advisors, and work streams, in a fast-paced execution focused environment
- Highly effective communicator, including experience distilling complex topics into clear, concise presentation materials and confidence in presenting to different stakeholder groups
- Strong leadership and project management capabilities
- Deeply curious, with a desire to understand and master complex financial structures
- Meticulous attention to detail and accuracy in work output
- Ability to meet deadlines and work well under pressure
- Willingness to work across the organization in support of ad hoc projects as required
- Team player who enjoys a high-performance culture

Our Commitment to Inclusion and Diversity
